

MOHAMMED FAWAZ

Innovator and Facilitative Trainer

Mohammed FAWAZ is the Founder of CurveUp, an education technology consultancy organization that also focuses on Learning and Development.

He is an award winning pioneer of live online tutoring in his native land since 2012 with nearly ten years of experience including a decent global reach. Global Tutor was his first startup baby, that introduced a process including a system integration of learning management system, content management system and virtual classroom.

Today Fawaz has helped a large number of academic individuals or organizations to go digital with innovative practices. His projects include collaboration with a number of organizations for empowering teachers, entrepreneurs, youth and women, especially in the rural sectors.

Learning & Development Experience

His L&D journey began in 2013 with projects of inculcating digital awareness for academic bodies, empowering youth and women with personal development and entrepreneurship.

Current Work Activity

- Rural entrepreneurial empowerment and personal development through NGOs.
- Design and Deliver trainings for UNDP, and Academic institutions in design thinking, community leadership, business intelligence, and entrepreneurship bootcamps.
- Digital transformation practices for academics.
- Country consultancy through EO Global Student Entrepreneurship Awards.

Previous Work Activity

- Facilitator of EducateToInnovate and ImagineIF program through ICTA.
- Facilitator of ideation phase, social entrepreneurship mentoring and community leadership through the Hackadev program by UNDP.
- 'Tutor Connect' TV program for innovative education on national live television, ART tv.
- The Apex workshop series for students, parents and teachers.

Academics & Credentials

Google Certified Educator

MBA – University of Northampton, UK

BSc in Business Information System – Middlesex University, UK

Pg,Dip in Marketing – CIM-UK

Area of Specialization

- Digital and Social
- Engagement.
- Innovation management.
- Public speaking and Facilitating.